Spend the Weekend in Wedgwood! –

Join us on July 13th & 14th to celebrate handmade artists in the lovely NE Seattle neighborhood of Wedgwood. This fun filled weekend offers inspiring handmade art, live local music, kid activities, beer garden, Seattle Art Cars and great food. Free to the public and entertaining for all ages. This juried art festival includes returning favorites and many new artists from the Pacific Northwest. Shop from over 70 of the area's finest artists and craftsmen. With a wide variety of fine arts and crafts, there is something for everyone. Choose a new painting, print or photograph for that bare space on your wall. Pick out some jewelry for an evening out, or a new ceramic mug for your morning coffee. Add some whimsy to your garden with a new outdoor sculpture. Choose from beautiful glass, mosaics, sculpture, fiber arts and more to add to your collection.

Entertainment-

Always memorable, the musical lineup at the Wedgwood Art Festival showcases a diverse variety of talent from 11 local bands under our covered seated stage area. Start your Saturday morning with Cuban dance music of Clave Gringa. Also performing, Public radio station KNKX favorites, Birch Pereira and the Gin Joints return to get us into the swing. Amigos Nobles (Flamenco/Jazz fusion) and The New Triumph (Latin/Jazz) bring their immense talents to the festival stage. For you Blues lovers, we have Stickshift Annie with Kimbal & the Fugitives, as well as Erik Madis & Blue Madness entertaining the crowd. New this year are Those Guys and the Scott Linenmuth Trio are fun to watch. Other returning favorites include ThorNton Creek and File' Gumbo. The fun continues for kids visiting the Wedgwood Art festival. On Sat & Sun, don't miss the annual visit from the Seattle Fire Department's Engine 40. Get your picture taken on the firetruck. Kids can also participate in creating art in 2 booths at the children's area, courtesy of Our Lady of the Lake School & Concordia Lutheran School. While you are at the festival, get some art on your face with Wild Smiles Face painting. New this year, a fun exhibit of the famous Seattle Art Cars, located on NE 89th St. ot to be missed!

Food-

Enjoy a meal or a snack while at the festival from the Festival's Food Truck Row. Many returning favorites include tasty Ghanaian cuisine from Blackstar Kebab and because we all need our coffee and baked treats, On the Grind Espresso. Look for both sweet and savory pies by 314 Pies, and Road Dawgs top their all beef hot dogs with everything you can think of. They also offer chicken and vegan dogs! Anthony's Finn offers fish & chips and other great seafood. Ready for something cold? Sweet Wheels offers a creamy handmade ice cream sandwich, perfect for a hot summer's day. And we're very excited to have the Hellbent Brewery Beer Garden, hosted by Our Lady of the Lake Parish. Great food and cold beer, what's better? Come on by!!

Sponsors-

A big thank you to Our Lady of the Lake Parish and School for allowing the festival to use their grounds. They are also hosting the Hellbent Brewery Beer Garden and a kid's art booth. Remember, no dogs are allowed in the festival, however we do have a complementary pet sitting station for your furry friends. Sponsored by Paws for the Cause and Roosevelt Station Vet Care.
